

Writing

Our book: Riddle of the Runes

We will be learning how to write an informative diary entry, becoming the main character of our book. We will also be learning what makes a good non-chronological and writing our own using our knowledge of the Vikings.

Reading

Our book: Riddle of the runes

We will be focussing on fluency, vocabulary, comprehension and debating big ideas.

History

Were the Vikings ruthless killers or peaceful settlers?

We will learn about the Viking invasion of Britain, how this affected the way of life, the pillaging and battles that took place and significant people such as Alfred the Great and Edward the Confessor to answer the big question about the D.T.

Which type of sail is the most efficient on a boat?

We will be applying our knowledge and understanding of reinforcing structures, using our research and development skills and critique, evaluate and test our ideas.

French

How do you order an ice-cream in France?

We will be learning how to refer to a variety of foods in French and be able to confidently order our favourite ice-cream flavours.

Science

Why are forces important to us in everyday life and deigning new products?

We will work scientifically to record accurate and precise measurements to explain the effects of gravity on a variety of objects and investigate the effects of forces such as friction and water resistance.

PSHE

What does it mean to be different?

We will be learning about the things that make us unique and special as well as how important it is to respect our differences. We will learn how being different but working together creates a more diverse culture and enriched experience for all.

Maths:

Fractions: Equivalent, improper fractions and mixed numbers, including converting.

Multiplication and division.: written methods

R.E

How do festivals and family life show why Hindus want to be good?

P.E.

Forest School: We will be learning how to be safe explorers, completing creative tasks such as den building as well as taking part in role play and learning creative skills.

What skills does a good football player need?

We will learn how to keep control of the ball , develop our passing skills, accurate shooting and be able to perform black tackles effectively. We will learn how to play effectively as part of a team, using all of our skills.

Computing

What do cryptographers do and how do they do it?

We will be exploring this question and suing these skills to present our own work.

History

T
E
R
M
2

Y
E
A
R
5